"WOULD VOTE A BILLION DOLLARS TO PROTECT MY COUNTRY"

> BLACKTON'S INSPIRING APPEAL ENTHRALLS DOROTHY DIX TO WISH SHE HAD A VOTE.

> > Sept. 11, 1915.

Dear Commodore Blackton: "The Battle Cry of Peace" thrilled me to the marrow of my bones, and made me wish more than ever that I had a vote, so that I could help vote a billion dollars to protect my country.

"The Battle Cry of Peace" is the voice of the prophet crying in the wilderness to us to come up and be saved, and it will find an echo in every patriotic heart. It is propaganda and drama couched in the most telling terms, and the ones that make the most vital appeal to the imagination, because they visualize the catastrophe that will happen to our country if we do not waken from our fool's dream of safety lying in unpreparedness for war. Yours sincerely,

Triangle Plays at the Knickerbocker

Tomorrow morning the Box Office at the Knickerbocker Theatre will be ready with the tickets for the first TRIANGLE plays.

You've been hearing about these plays fairly regularly for some weeks-you've read what we intended to show you.

You already know the stars-they are old

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS in "The Lamb."

RAYMOND HITCHCOCK in "My Valet."

DUSTIN FARNUM in "The Iron Strain.

Was ever such a bill offered to the New York Public? Better arrive at the box office seasonably, for the TRIANGLE idea has attracted more attention than anything else in stageland. You will find the admission prices the same as those charged at any other first-class playhouse -from Fifty Cents to Two Dollars.

Evening performances will begin at 8 o'clock -matinee performances at 2. All we need to remind you of now is the open-
